COLUMN ONE

Over 500 people purchased a meal at the Breakfast with Santa event held last Saturday. That's a lot of pancakes.

Don't Try and Lick a Frozen Pole

We all know (well, except for Flick in "A Christmas Story") that it is not a good idea to put your tongue on a frozen metal pole (and probably even if the pole is not frozen for that matter). But, a good winter activity that everyone can agree on would be going to Mount Kare for Winter Camp. Mount Kare is Kare Youth League's camping facility in Wrightwood, California (about a 60-90 minute drive from wherever you are). Below are the dates for each Division excursion:

Girls

Division 2	February 23-24	$67
Division 1	February 1-3	$92

Boys

A & B Division	February 9	$42
AA Division	February 16-17	$67
Pac 12 Division	February 16-18	$99
Titans	February 8-10	$130 (includes paintball)

Candy Cane History from the "Awe Filled Homemaker"

Candy Canes are often associated with Christmastide and St. Nicholas Day. Legend has it that a choir master at the Cologne Cathedral in Germany in 1670 decided to hand out sugar sticks to young children to keep them quiet during the live crèche (Nativity). Because special event took place during Christmas and to justify giving the kids sugary sweets, he had the sticks bent into the shape of shepherd crooks.

In Wooster, Ohio a German-Swedish immigrant used candy canes and paper ornaments to decorate blue spruce. Sound familiar? The red and white stripes along with the peppermint wasn't added into the mix until the turn of the century.

The candy cane was first mentioned in publication in association with Christmas in 1874 and it wasn't until around 1882 that it was first hung on Christmas Trees. Chicago, Illinois is home to the first patent for candy cane making machines. The Bunte Brothers, who were Chicago based confectioners, filed for the patent in the early 1920's.

So how did the Candy Cane get its stripes? Indiana is the home to that invention. A local candy maker wanted to come up with something that reminded him of the birth of our Savior. That's when he created our traditional Christmas Candy Cane. He began this process with a stick of pure white hard candy. The white symbolizes the virgin birth of Jesus and also serves as a reminder of His sinless nature. The hardness of the candy reminds us of the solid foundation of the church and is also a reminder of the firmness of the promises of God. The shape of the J represents the name of Jesus and the staff of the Good Shepherds. The candy maker then added three red stripes which represented the torture that Jesus endured and the blood He shed while on the cross. When the candy cane is broken, that represents the body of Christ broken for us.
