Seminoles Defeat Bulldogs in Opener

The Florida St. Seminoles opened the 2007 season with a big win over the visiting Georgia Bulldogs 26-14 last Saturday.

The offense averaged 7.8 yards per play led by Adrian Alcocer who scored three TD's, gaining 62 yards. Kyle Horton scored the other TD on a 23 yard run. Marcus Rubalcava and Daniel Silvestre combined for 57 yards. The offense performed well due to the fantastic blocking up front. Hayden Wideman and Victor Rivera led the way at their guard positions each collecting 11 blocks. Brandon D'Annunzio did an exceptional job at center, collecting 10 blocks. Ian Beltran doled out 9 blocks while DJ Rubalcava and Evan Gray had 5.

The defense also played well, led by Marcus Rubalcava and Adrian Alcocer with 7 tackles each. Daniel Silvestre took down 6, while DJ Rubalcava and Kyle Horton had 4 each. Andres Quezada did an outstanding job anchoring the middle of the line, taking down 3 'Dogs in the process. Kenny Peterson and Donnavan Manabanda had two tackles each, and Nathan Medina and Nathan Fathauer each had 1.

Ray Martinez did a great job kicking, averaging 30 yards per kickoff, while converting on 1 of 3 Pat attempts.
