Banquet Rehearsal This Friday

There is a performance rehearsal for the I Kare for Youth Banquet this Friday after basketball practice & team meeting in Arcadia.

I will take the boys that are performing in the bus to Arcadia after practice. We will stop at McDonald's for dinner, so have your child bring money for that. The rehearsal starts at 7:00PM. We will be done at 7:30 PM. You can pick up your child at 7:30 in Arcadia, or at Russell Park at 8:00 PM (Glendora Ave. parking lot).

The banquet on Saturday starts at 7:00 PM. Please dress your child in jeans, and a decent looking shirt (school shirt is fine), and shoes they can run around in (when they are not performing, they will be playing basketball, whiffle ball, etc.).

AA Championship Game

The AA's will play for the AA Division title against the winner of the North Carolina/Georgia playoff game to be played this Friday. The game will be 1:00 PM at Russell Park. The AA-1's do not have a game.

Peterson & Wideman Lead 'Noles to Shinlinger Cup

The Seminoles who went to Winter Camp last weekend had a great time in the snowy confines of Mt. Kare. On Sunday, the Seminoles defeated the Kentucky Wildcats in the Street Hockey Championship to win the Shinlinger Cup. Kenny Peterson was a man on a mission, scoring the only goal of the game just minutes into the contest. From there, it was great defense that held on to the win. Hayden Wideman made three key saves at goalie (the quickest we've seen him move) to preserve the win. Adrian Alcocer battled in the frozen mud with Wildcat Samson Sly-Hoar for what seemed like an eternity. Andres Quezada, Kyle Horton and Ian Beltran held down the Wildcats between the blue lines in the win.
