Football seasons on the brink

It's crunch time as the Kare Youth League football season finishes with a flurry of playoff and championship games.

Playoffs are on Saturday setting up championships on December 5.

Here are the Interleaguer's top four story lines as the season comes to a close.

#1 - Can Tar Heel Bs stay perfect?

The Tar Heel Bs are Kare's only unbeaten and united team heading into the postseason. They must get through Georgia then the Kentucky/FSU winner to remain that way.

#2 - Seminoles and Hurricanes on collision course in AA Division

Florida State and Miami sit atop the AA Division and are heavy favorites in their playoff games to set up a huge championship showdown. Miami's only loss this season came at the hands of the Seminoles.

#3 - AAA Division totally up for grabs

While it appears the Seminoles are the heavy favorite with their 6-1 record that isn't necessarily the case. The Tar Heels, whom they face in the playoffs, beat them once already and lost by just a touchdown to their intra-park rivals last Saturday. Georgia is the defending champ and must get by a pesky Wildcat bunch in order to get a shot at defending their title.

#4 - Pac-10 looks like battle of the East

USC and UCLA, both from Covina, will face off in championship assuming the Bruins can handle Cal in the playoffs. Due to their seven game cushion on fourth place Stanford USC doesn't have to play a playoff game.

The East streak continues

The East took four of six games at the Future Bowl on November 10 extending its Future Bowl unbeaten streak to 17 years.

Rio Hondo begins title defense Friday night

Rio Hondo Prep captured its sixth Prep League title in the last seven years with a 46-0 win over Webb on Friday and begin the 2009 CIF playoffs at home Friday at 7:30 p.m. against Desert Christian out of Lancaster.

The Kares, whose team is comprised of boys who played in KYL as youngsters, would greatly appreciate your support.

Home games are on-campus at Kare Field...the same location as Kare/Arcadia. Ticket prices, set by CIF, are as follows: Adults - $8, students (with ID) - $5, children (13 and under) - $5.

Rio Hondo has a long-standing football tradition having won 12 CIF championships - most recently in 2008, and having played in the CIF title game 18 times.

QB Chris Llamas leads Rio Hondo into its first round CIF playoff game Friday night at Kare/Arcadia. Rio's team is made up of boys who played in Kare as youngsters.

Family information needs updating

When youngsters join Kare Youth League, we receive important information about them and their family – such as address, phone number, emergency contact, etc.

Over time, this information needs to be up dated as people move or change jobs, and so forth. During the month of November, we are asking all parents to be sure their family's information is correct by filling out an Information Update sheet.

If you haven't already filled out your Update sheet, please ask your child's leader for it and return it as soon as possible.
