Tar Heels C/B's vs. Falcons
1:30 Upland - Field #1

Hey there Tar Heel Fans...
 We will be on the road this week.
 Yes we are playing the Falcons again! The game is at Sierra Vista Park in Upland. Not at the Pacific
 Christian Center like last year.

C/B's battle to Victory

Tar Heel fans look out for a new standard in Heel Football! The C/B's came out ready to play in their first game as a unit. The Heels opened up the game on defense. Jonathan Canchola spearheaded the attack with 5 sacks on the game! His penetration into the Falcon's backfield struck fear into the heart of the Falcon runners. Fernando Morgan completely dominated the center of the field at middle linebacker shooting down 4 Falcons on the day with a couple of assists from Aydan Cisneros, Anton Edginton and Richard Arteaga. Max Sanchez and Gavin Lovejoy contained the Falcons around the ends with a couple tackles each.

The Falcons would end up scoring on their first drive, but the Heels came back strong! They stopped the extra point attempt and began to march on the Falcons after the kick-off. Abraham Almodovar ignited the attack as he blazed 18 yards down the field behind Noah Sandovals' blocking expertise. Morgan added to the charge on a 4 yarder to give the Heels six points. Jared Rosa and Moses Lujan both ran bravely picking up a yard each.
