

The Tar Heel Times

The Official Newsletter of the Kare Youth League Tar Heel B's & C/B's November 17, 2009

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21

B's vs. Georgia 3:45 Covina
Snacks - Okoye Saavedra

C/B's vs. Georgia 1:45 Arcadia
Snacks - Aydan Cisneros

C/B PICTURE DAY

We will be taking pictures at 1:20 in Arcadia this Sat. Do not be late!

Thursday, November 26 thru
Saturday, November 28

No Activities
Happy Thanksgiving!

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5

(Championship week)

B's - Snacks - Jacob Lyons

C/B's - Snacks - Jared Rosa

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8

Basketball Practice begins!

We hope to see everyone out there for the basketball season!

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12

Breakfast With Santa

Time: 8:00-11:00 a.m.

Arcadia (inside the Pavilion)

Cost: $7.00
(includes breakfast, games in Santa Land and a picture)

* We will also have a basketball scrimmage in the afternoon.

* If you haven't been to a Kare conference yet, you need to attend one today!

Arredondo Leaves Shoe and Noles Behind

Alias Williams opened up the game with a 15 yard KO return. Cuda would score first for the Heels on a broken play from 15 yards out. The Seminoles would begin their attack after the failed extra point. After 5 plays Arredondo snuck in, snatched the ball from the QB and sprinted untouched into the endzone. This time Cisneros' kick would be good.

The Noles would once again take over on downs and begin their march down the field. The Heel defense came out ready to play as Billy Hennessy picked off a pass to give the Heels the ball back.

Daniel Arredondo managed to run right out of his shoe on his run up the middle to get into the endzone on a 25 yarder. Jacob Lyons blasted a kick 30 ft over the goal post for the extra point. Lyons would then blast the 2nd half opening kickoff all the way into the endzone. Eventually the Noles managed to score. Josh Mora grabbed some air-time as he blocked the extra point.

The Noles then found some life and stopped the heels on their next set of downs forcing a punt. Lyons blasted it down to the 5 yards line and the Heel defense stopped the Seminoles in their tracks. Robby Reyes finished off the Heel attack with a 5 yard carry followed by Josh Mora with a 4 yard pickup. The Heels will face off against their arch-nemesis the Bulldogs. Although they are the 4th place team, the Heels better come out ready to play!

(with the logo), a light blue Tar Heel jersey (the same as we used during soccer season) white socks and tennis shoes. You do not need to re-register for the Kare program. Just be sure your $75 basketball registration fee is paid before our first game on December 12th. Any past fees also need to be paid up at this time.

Tar Heel C/B's Secure Playoff Berth

In a battle to enter the playoffs, the Heels came out ready to play! Jared Rosa set the stage with a beautiful hand-off to Fernando Morgan, who swept 34 yards down the sideline for the 6 points. The Heels failed to punch the extra point in, and the Noles would take over on downs.

The Heel defense rallied behind nose guard, Abraham Almodovar who downed 5 Noles. Morgan dominated the middle of the field also with 5 tackles on the day. Gavin Lovejoy, Richard Arteaga and Jonathan Canchola helped to secure the defense with 2 tackles a piece. Aydan Cisneros, Max Sanchez, Moses Lujan, Noah Sandoval and Steven Murguia each added 1 tackle to the leader board. The Heels would stop the Seminoles on the 3 yard line just shy of the goal line.

Jonathan Canchola took control and with no time on the clock would run the ball 33 yards into the endzone. Steven Murguia would storm into action in the second half to add 6 more points to the scoreboard on his 25 yard powerplay up the middle. The Heels look to play the Georgia Bulldogs at 1:45 in Arcadia for the first round of the playoffs.

