COLUMN ONE

Be there for summer camp at Mount Kare

It may seem as though winter camps just ended, but nevertheless, summer camps are coming soon. Cool mountain breezes, camp fires under the stars, good times with your friends, fabulous food, swimming...all this and much more awaits you this summer at Mount Kare.

Kare Youth League owns and operates Mount Kare - recognized as one of the finest camping facilities in all of Southern California. The camp sits on 16 wooded acres and has all the trappings of an alpine resort. Among the amenities are seven spacious cabins, a kitchen and dining hall, a two-story lodge with a game room, a gorgeous mountain meadow and a regulation size basketball court.

Make sure you take advantage of Kare's first-class facility this summer. Find your child's camp date on the list below and reserve it now as you plan your family's summer calendar.

For those who want a first hand look at Mount Kare you can visit at its open house on May 29.

Baseball/Softball Tip Center

Hitting Approach

One of the simplest tips for hitting is to develop a regimen. Do the same pattern as you step up to the plate. Getting into a pre at bat ritual will help to keep things constant and get you in a groove.

Three simple rules to hit by:

1. Get a good pitch to hit. Not only do you have to know the strike zone, but you need to know your strengths and weaknesses in the strike zone.
2. Be quick with the bat. Bat speed will enable you to wait longer and explode on the ball.
3. Think. Remember what the pitcher likes to throw. Know the scouting report and anticipate pitches (yes, even guess at the proper time).

East and West go toe-to-toe at the Future Series

A highlight of any baseball/softball season at Kare Youth League is the annual Future Series, which matches combined teams from the Eastern and Western Conferences in a series of games (one for each division). This year's series is spread over three dates in Covina.
