High Scoring Opening Day

The Tar Heel C's battled it out against the Wildcats of Arcadia in last Saturday's season opener. Sammy Ghandour sparked the Heels' offensive attack on the opening kickoff with a 12 yard carry. Ocean Saavedra followed suit with a sweet 10 yarder good enough for a Tar Heel first down. Rocky Valasco picked up a couple yards with the Cats pouncing all over him. The Heels then turned to Ghandour who darted his way through the Wildcat defensive grid and into the end-zone for six points. New comer to the team, Jad Jaber, crossed the goal line to complete the extra point attempt. But the Wildcats battled right back, scoring quickly on the following kickoff.

Kentucky repeated their Kickoff return on the opening kickoff of the second half, this time completing their extra point attempt. With a score of 7-13 the Heels would have to dig deep. Ghandour stormed 18 yards downfield on the next kickoff. Ashton Ceballos smashed into the defensive wall on his run. Cole Sebert had a huge 12 yard gain, along with Andon Wilson who picked up 8. Skylar Davis marched up the field on a 4 yarder and both Canyon Smith and Nelson Sawyer picked up 3. Alan Pinedo and Jackson Castillo picked up a couple yards on their runs and Tim Bass lead the team with 12 huge blocks!

It was Ivan Barragan this time who would drive it home for the Heels on a 5 yarder for 6.

Once again Kentucky would answer, this time on a 30 yard QB sweep to pull ahead 19-13. Time was running out. With just seconds left on the board, Barragan scooped up the kickoff and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown! The Heels pulled out a pass to try to seal the deal, but would end the game in a 19-19 tie. The Tar Heels look to play the Bulldogs in next week's matchup. Let's see if their open field tackling will stop the Bulldogs!
