

CHAMPIONSHIP PREVIEWS '11

CB Division - 12:30, C-1
FSU 6-0-1 vs. Georgia 6-1-2

Outlook: The last time these two teams met was under the lights in Arcadia. FSU drove down the field to take the lead with under a minute left and then Georgia tied it up on the last play of the game. Get the children in early and close the barn door, this one is goin' down to the wire.

Players to watch: The first place Seminoles are led by top tacklers Jesse Samel (28), Raymond Avila (14), Joe Olivas (11), and Zach Rodriguez (10). QB Jack Wolack has scored 6 touchdowns and Efrain Carbajal has galloped for 76 yds. The Bulldogs rely on LB Santana Huff and DL Sylus Fuentes to stop opponents on defense. For the offense to score they will have to see production from RB's Gabriel Martinez (103 yds.) and Jacob Orozco (86 yds.) running behind Outland award nominee Gary Menendez.

B Division - 2:00 C-1
FSU 5-1-2 vs. Georgia 3-2-3

Outlook: In this even balanced division it is no surprise to see the 2nd seeded Noles going up against the 4th seeded Dawgs. Asked about the game, Steelers defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau said, "the team that wins the turnover battle will probably win the game." We agree.

Players to watch: The Seminoles have one of the best defensive lines in the division. Ishaun Khoum (30 tac.), Jose Durazo (31 tac.), & Zach Vasquez (38 tac.) have combined for 4 sacks this year. "If" you can get by them then SLB Isaac Mejia will be waiting to clean up the leftovers.

This Georgia team is extremely balanced and is very tough to stop. The beef up front is important including leading blockers Devin Dunlap and Manny Delgado. This year's squad has added some quickness from Jonathan Guerrero (151 yds.) to add to last year's top rusher, Jayden Sanchez (157 yds.).

A Division - 3:30 A-1
Georgia (6-1-1) vs. FSU (4-3-1)

Outlook: Early in the season these foes battled to a scoreless tie and then Georgia won the rematch by a touchdown. Look for a close game in one of the most competitive Kare divisions.

Players to watch: 1st place Georgia comes in favored with a solid "fourhorsemen" backfield. Harley Berumen (434 yds. & 9 TD), Aidan Powell (210 yds. & 5 TD), Ivan Ostry (272 yds. & 4 TD), & Eudene Corletto (200 yds. & 3 TD) are as potent & balanced an attack as you will see.

Offense will also be the key for the Seminoles. Anthony Felton (6.0 ypc), Wyatt Oak (6.3 ypc), and Josh Galtman (4.0 ypc) will have to punch holes in the Bulldog defense. Jonathan Bishop, Joseph Gonzalez, Eddie Vienneau, Robbie Ortiz, & Jared Hamp are the big boys up front that make that possible.

AA Division - 5:00 A-1
UNC (7-0) vs. Kentucky (5-3)

Outlook: UNC looks to complete the perfect season but an ever improving Kentucky squad looks to upset their apple cart.

Players to watch: The Tarheels fell short last year and that has left a bitter taste that they long to get rid of. Butkis finalist Bill Hennessy (39 tac) leads a stingy defense that has held opponents to 10 points per game. Corner bookends Ed Silvestre and Junior Valenzuela have been solid in the secondary and with the ball Nick Cuda (273 yds.) and Jaylen Caluag (151 yds.) have been unstoppable.

The Wildcats got off to a slow start but have been peaking at the right time. Zack Camarena leads in scoring (18) and on the ground (197 yds.) followed by Hunter Nicely (158 yds.) and Robert DeLa Pena (150 yds.). On defense hard hitting Joe Posada, Eddie Perez, and Ryan Glatt all appear to be future first rounders.

AAA Division - 6:30 A-1
FSU (7-0) vs. Georgia (5-3)

Outlook: The Seminoles outlasted the Bulldogs 8-6 in their last meeting. Will FSU be celebrating a perfect season or will Georgia be dancin' the Cat-Daddy?

Players to watch: This Seminole AAA squad is one of only two teams in Kare Youth League that is undefeated. It is easy to look at the backfield and touchdown makers but behind the scenes boys like Adam Stallings, Devin Riley, David Morquecho, & Morgan Carhart really make this juggernaut into the heavy favorite that it is.

Georgia is riding a 4 game win streak and has given up less than a touchdown a game during that stretch. Dillon Gadoury, Richard Sanchez, and Cannon Nielson are all part of the 40 tackle club. Big TE Thomas Valverde blocks well and is tough to bring down in the open field. QB Cole Hillier and TB Christian Miller have combined for over 400 yards rusing and 7 TD's.

Pac-12 - 8:00 A-1
UCLA (6-1-1) vs. Stanford (5-4)

Outlook: UCLA and Stanford have played 3 times this year and the Bruins have come out on top by about a touchdown each time.

Players to watch: UCLA comes in riding a 5 game winning streak and are led by Heisman hopefuls B.J. Uboni (435 yds. & 7 TD) & Joseph Garcia (260 yds. passing & 5 TD). Big Joseph Davis watches Garcia's "Blind Side" with 125 blocks and Matt Arias leads the team from his center position with 140. MLB Luke Evans (110 tac.) is a force to be reckoned with on defense.

The Cardinal upset USC 20-6 to make it to the "Big Game" but, they will have to win without injured standout Memo Calvillo (11.8 ypc). It will be very important for linemen J.D. Castilleja & Ethan Nishkawa to open holes for RB Michael Barbosa (317 yds.) and Jordin Stroman (214 yds.).

Pac-5 "A"

*Cougars vs. Panthers	2:15	U
-----------------------	------	---

Pac-5 "B" Division - 1:00 - A-1 Hawks (6-3) vs. Huskies (5-4)

Outlook: The Hawks & Huskies both pulled off big upsets to make it to the final game. It will be interesting to see which Cinderella the shoe fits.

Players to watch: For the Hawks (cacaw, cacaw) the big difference in the playoff game was serving. 4 players had perfect days but none greater than Kaitlin Cabal who served all 25 points in a row in game one of their playoff contest. Jadalyn Borla (58%) and Morgan Lee (57%) lead the team in passing percentage and Alexis Arevalo (83%) was right behind Kaitlin in serving percentage for the year.

The Huskies (ruff, ruff) faced the 1st place Cougars and won with some impressive passing and serving. Jaedyn Leivas (46%) and Crystal Urena (46%) lead the team in passing but Dayna Christensen was 4-4 in the big game. Elizabeth Sainz (20-21) was almost perfect with her sizzling serves.

Pac-5 "A" Division - 2:15 - U-1 Cougars (7-2) vs. Panthers (7-2)

Outlook: The experienced Cougars will try to outlast the athletic Panthers in this contest that should be one for the ages.

Players to watch: The Cougars seasoned themselves in early season tournaments, placing 2nd in the St. Joseph's and winning the Mission Tournament behind all tournament spiker Selena Vasquez. Leading servers Kristie Quintero (87%), Donquie Jones (83%), and Myeia Brown (82%) have really carried the tray this season. They should open up a restaurant with these kind of serving numbers.

The Panthers are paced by team captains Alexis Llamas and Samantha Dominguez who both have passing numbers over 80%. Even Aaron Rodgers doesn't have those kind of stats. Of course serving is the key for any championship run and team leader, Hayley Del Fierro, will have a big say in who carries away the trophy.

Breakfast with Santa

Santa Claus is coming to town. "Breakfast With Santa" is on December 10 from 8:00-11:00 at Kare Youth League's elementary school called Pearl Prep. Pearl Prep is located on Mulhall in El Monte.

For only $7.00 children and their parents can enjoy a hearty pancake breakfast, play Christmas themed games in Santa Land, and get a color picture with old St. Nick. This will be the perfect opportunity to take a family photo for your Christmas Card. See you there!

RHP vs. Boron in Semi-Final

The Rio Hondo Prep Kares Football squad has made it to the CIF semi-final game against arch rival Boron. The game is in Boron and it should be a classic but dress warm. The two teams met earlier in the season on Kare Field and Rio won by 2.
