VOLUME 72, NUMBER 2 • SEPTEMBER 17, 2012

COLUMN ONE

Congratulations!

Kare Youth League alumni Mike Harris, former UCLA standout, earned the starting left tackle spot for the San Diego Chargers this year. Way to go, Mike!

Jaylenn Wong, coach of the Georgia AA squad, recently graduated from Cal Poly Pomona and is currently working on his post-graduate degree at the Talbot School of Theology of Biola University. Keep up the good work, Jaylenn!

RHP Football coach, Mark Carson (pictured middle above), attended the birth of his third daughter, Hope Carson, on September 5th. Mark has been coaching the RHP teams since 2002. His wife Claudia teaches at Cherrylee Elementary in El Monte and is getting some well-deserved time off. Congratulations Mark and Claudia!

Kare Youth League Showcase at Charter Oak

The biggest event of the fall will be the Kare Youth League Showcase on Saturday, October 6 at Charter Oak High School in Covina. Members are responsible to meet a set ticket quota ranging from 35-100 depending on age and gender. If you don't have a book of tickets make sure to talk to your child's leader.

Where Can I Sell These Tickets?

When Showcase tickets are handed out many people feel like Pooh Bear and say, "Oh Bother", but Showcase tickets are not as hard to sell as you may think. We encourage you to take the "Showcase Challenge". Go to a local grocery store in the evening and spend about 1 hour selling. Most age levels will be able to sell their quota in two nights; the older ones may take a few more, but most people are willing to part with a buck to help a child. Make sure to be respectful, courteous, and appropriately dressed (uniform or school dress). Make a goal and when you reach it, buy an ice cream. The more fun you make it, the more fun it will be.

Youngest Members of Kare Youth League Starting

Kindergarten and PK boys (who turned 4 by August 1st) begin their soccer program on Saturday, September 29 at 11:00. The boys meet every Saturday at 11:00 and finish around noon. If you are interested, give our director a call at (626) 442-1160 x111.
