Tar Heels Fired Up in 100° Weather

The weather man said it would be hot last Saturday, but little did he know exactly how hot! The Tar Heel B's lit up the scoreboard in an epic battle against the Wildcats from Arcadia. Opening day jitters struck the Heels early on, causing two fumbles. Danny Orosco turned things around quickly, however, ripping the ball out of the quarterbacks hands and cruising on into the endzone for the first points of the day. The Heels wouldn't let down from that point on. Mekhi White pierced through the heart of the Wildcat defense on a QB keeper to add one more to the scoreboard. The Heels picked up an onside kick and continued to roll. Kysean Daniels scored from 20 out on a sweet sweep around the end. White then delivered an amazing pass to Daniels while being tackled to complete the extra point. Armando Murillo and Jr. Campos both picked up a few yards on their carries. Lucas DeGraaf then took control of the offense as he rolled around the end for a 10 yard pickup into the endzone, followed by Ocean Saavedra scoring the extra point. Who needs a fire brigade when your offense is fueled by the Tar Heels blocking brigade! Matt Rodriguez, Jacob Moran, Jacob Ulloa, Jr. Campos & Ocean Saavedra battled it out in the trenches blasting huge holes in the Wildcat defense. The Tar Heel defense was led by Campos and White both with 5 tackles on the day. Keishawn Ross downed 4 Cats along with Jacob Moran and Armando Murillo both with 2. Kysean Daniels won the award for hardest tackle of the day. Ashton Ceballos and Noe Reyes picked up some key action late in the game with a tackle a piece. The Heels won with a score of 26-0 and look forward to playing the Bulldogs next!
