The Falcon and Kentucky AAA's Battle

A Tale of Two Men – Part One (The Importance of Integrity)

Many years ago, Al Capone virtually owned Chicago. Capone wasn't famous for anything heroic. He was notorious for everything from bootlegged booze to murder.

Capone had a lawyer nicknamed "Easy Eddie." He was Al's lawyer for a good reason. Eddie was very good! In fact, Eddie's skill at legal maneuvering kept Big Al out of jail for a long time. To show his appreciation, Capone paid him very well. Eddie's estate was so large that it filled an entire Chicago City block. Eddie gave little consideration to the atrocities that went on around him.

Eddie did have one soft spot, however. He had a son that he loved dearly. Eddie saw to it that his young son had everything. Nothing was withheld. Price was no object. And, despite his involvement with organized crime, Eddie even tried to teach him right from wrong. Eddie wanted his son to be a better man than he was. Yet, with all his wealth and influence, there were two things he couldn't give his son; he couldn't pass on a good name or a good example.

One day, Easy Eddie reached a difficult decision. He decided he would go to the authorities and tell the truth about Al "Scarface" Capone, clean up his tarnished name, and offer his son some semblance of integrity. To do this, he would have to testify against The Mob, and so he did.

Within the year, Easy Eddie's life ended in a blaze of gunfire. But in his eyes, he had given his son the greatest gift he had to offer, at the greatest price he could ever pay. To be continued...

Kare Showcase at Charter Oak "Shines"!

The 2012 Kare Youth League Showcase was a great event for all involved. Boys played football, older girls played volleyball, and the youngest girls performed to "Make it Shine". We would like to thank all those who sold tickets to make this fundraiser a big success.

The 2012 Showcase was a big success.
