

INTERLEAGUER

VOLUME 72, NUMBER 7 • OCTOBER 22, 2012

COLUMN ONE

Santa Fe is a beautiful place to take a stroll. Come on out Saturday, November 3 and see for yourself!

It's Time to Choose

November is almost here and people all across the southland will be making a very important choice. What choice is that? Why, whether to enter the 5K or the 10K, of course. You didn't think we were talking about something else, did you?

The 3rd Annual "5K at Santa Fe" is taking on a new look in a lot of ways. There are actually 3 options of length this year. Besides the 5K and 10K there will also be a 3K for younger runners. Winners in all races will receive awards.

Registration is easy. Just go into any Kare office or online at kyl.org/5k. Remember, it is a competitive running race, but there will also be many people taking part who just want to walk it. So make your choice and be a part!

Rubber ducks can also be adopted for $5.00 each or 5 for $20. It promises to be a "race for the ages".

Homecoming Night for RHP

The 2nd ranked Rio Hondo Prep Kares will be facing their arch rival, the Pasadena Poly Panthers on Friday, November 2 with the Prep League Championship on the line. Also, it will be homecoming night which means it will be a big night for the RHP High School girls as well. We hope you can come out and support the RHP boys and girls on this special night.

Fullback Jim Key (#42) takes off for some big yards last Friday. The Kares defeated Flintridge Prep 48-12.

A Tale of Two Men – Part Two (The Importance of Integrity)

Author unknown

World War II produced many heroes. One such man was Lieutenant Commander Butch O'Hare. He was a fighter pilot assigned to the aircraft carrier Lexington in the South Pacific. One day his entire squadron was sent on a mission. After he was airborne, he looked at his fuel gauge and realized that someone had forgotten to top off his fuel tank. He would not have enough fuel to complete his mission and get back to his ship.

His flight leader told him to return to the carrier. Reluctantly, he dropped out of formation and headed back to the fleet. As he was returning to the mother ship he saw a squadron of Japanese aircraft speeding its way toward the defenseless American fleet. He couldn't reach his squadron and bring them back in time to save the fleet. There was only one thing to do. He must somehow divert them from the fleet.

Laying aside all thoughts of personal safety, he dove into the formation of Japanese planes. Butch wove in and out of the Japanese formation and fired at as many planes as possible until all his ammunition was finally spent. Undaunted, he continued the assault. He dove at the planes, trying to clip a wing or tail in hopes of damaging as many enemy planes as possible and rendering them unfit to fly. Finally, the exasperated Japanese squadron took off in another direction.

Butch O'Hare and his tattered fighter limped back to the carrier. Upon arrival, he reported in and related the event surrounding his return. The film from the gun-camera mounted on his plane told the tale. It showed the extent of Butch's daring attempt to protect his fleet.

He had, in fact, destroyed five enemy aircraft. For his bravery Butch became the first naval aviator to win the Congressional Medal of Honor. A year later Butch was killed in aerial combat at the age of 29.

Today, O'Hare Airport in Chicago is named in tribute to the courage of this great man. And what do this story and last week's story have to do with each other? Butch O'Hare was "Easy Eddie's" son. And now you know...the rest of the story.
