

INTERLEAGUER

VOLUME 72, NUMBER 8 • OCTOBER 29, 2012

COLUMN ONE

Competitive or family style, either way works Saturday, November 3 at Santa Fe Dam. It is not too late to sign up!

It's Not Too Late...

...to sign up for the 3K-5K-10K Walk/Race at Santa Fe Dam.

Proceeds go to "Building for Their Future" which includes projects at Arcadia, Covina, Irwindale, and Upland. Here are a few important things to remember:

- 1) Check-in time is at 8:00 a.m. and the race begins at 9:00. If everyone comes at the last minute someone may miss out on the race!
- 2) Make sure to have a parking pass. You can pick up one in the office. If you don't have a parking pass, you will have to pay $10 to park, so don't forget the pass.
- 3) Anyone can adopt a duck for the Rubber Duck Race but there are very few remaining; $5.00 for one and $20 for five.

Future Bowl Rosters

Teams have been announced for the Future Bowl being held at Kare Youth League in Arcadia on Saturday, November 3. Pac Five girls will be playing volleyball in Stivers Center and boys from the C Division on up will be battling it out on the gridiron on Kare Field. Pick up a roster sheet for game times and rosters.

Girls' Night Out

Kare Youth League has come up with the perfect "Girls' Night Out", go to a football game? Well, it is the perfect suggestion if one of your coaches might get crowned Homecoming Queen, don't you think? That's what is happening on Friday, November 2 when Rio Hondo plays Pasadena Poly for the Prep League crown. Halftime will be an exciting time with all girls in Kare Youth League invited on the field. It should be quite a spectacle.

Ryan Wiley (#23) will be leaping into action Friday, November 2 at Kare Field.

Random Act of Kindness (Modern Day Good Samaritan) By Jackie Trottmann

My mother is 90 years old. Unless I have a reason to be out of town, each week I take my mother to do her shopping, visit the doctor and provide company and transportation for any other errands that she needs done. During the week, however, she likes to as she says, "Walk up to my little store," to buy odds and ends.

Last week she walked up to the store, but when she went to pay for her groceries, she was short about three dollars. The only solution to pay for the groceries was to take off the items she could do without. With being a diabetic she needs rubbing alcohol to cleanse her skin before she takes her blood and her insulin. She still had some alcohol at home, so she put that back. She also put back a package of jambalaya. By taking off these items, she was able to bring the new total to the amount of cash she had with her.

At this store you check out then go off to the side to bag your own groceries. My mother was taking her groceries out of the cart and putting them into bags when a woman (a total stranger) came up to her and said, "Here are the items that you put back," handing her the rubbing alcohol and the jambalaya. My mother, who is never speechless, was speechless. She asked for the woman's name and address so that she could repay her. The woman wouldn't have it. She told her it was her gift. My mother was so touched by her gesture that she decided to go back to the store and give the cashier a five dollar bill, just in case the same thing happened to someone else. One act of kindness will lead to another.

Kindness can be contagious. Follow the example of the Good Samaritan in Luke chapter 10. What random act of kindness can you do for someone this week?
