Winter Cold Brings Mount Kare Snow

Winter rain & cold means it is almost time for camping season at Mount Kare. Mount Kare is located just north of Wrightwood in the Angeles National Forest – across the valley from the Mountain High Ski Resort. It sits on 16 beautiful acres of mountain terrain; features seven heated cabins; has a full-service kitchen connected to a gorgeous dining hall; and has a spacious two-story lodge complete with fireplaces and a game room. Not exactly roughing it, but it is a great adventure none the less.

Brochures will be available next week in the office. Some groups will have opportunities to tube or ski and there are special forms to fill out for those activities. Check the schedule below for the days your child will have a chance to experience winter fun at its best!

There will be a lot of fun activities to do with your teammates up at Mount Kare this winter.

Winter Camping Days

Pac Five – February 8-10

AAA & Pac 12 – February 15-18

A & AA – February 22-24

Karenas – March 2-3

Excuses, Excuses... (from the Paul Harvey Radio Program): Part 1

Mrs. Paul is the choir director for the West Side Baptist Church in Beatrice, Nebraska. Her daughter, Marilyn, is the church pianist. Neither has ever been late for choir practice; to the contrary, both are in the habit of arriving fifteen minutes early. It's Wednesday evening, March 1, 1950 at 7:00. Choir practice begins at 7:30. Mrs. Paul calls to her daughter upstairs; it's almost time. There is no answer but Mrs. Paul returns to her last-minute preparation and the minutes are ticking away. It is 7:15 p.m. when Mrs. Paul realizes that Marilyn is asleep. Mrs. Paul awakens her; they tidy up, and start out. This will be the first time either Mrs. Paul or her daughter has ever been late for choir practice. Their perfect attendance record is broken. Excuses, excuses.

But you know what? There are eighteen members in the West Side Baptist Church Choir, and each and every one that very same night is also late for practice. All eighteen have perfectly valid excuses; all are late. You've read the excuse Mrs. Paul and her daughter had but the others had excuses too. Ladona Vandegrift, a high school sophomore, was having trouble with her homework. Like Mrs. Paul and Marilyn, Miss Vandegrift knew practice began promptly and she always came early, but this evening she was detained by a particularly baffling geometry problem. Royena Estes and her sister Sadie were ready to leave their house on time but their car wouldn't start. So the two sisters called Miss Vandegrift and asked her to pick them up. Miss Vandegrift was working on her geometry, remember, and the Estes sisters had to wait.

Ordinarily, Mrs. Schuster was ten minutes early for choir practice. The night of March 1 she was detained at her mother's house. The two were preparing for a later missionary meeting. Herb Kipf was at his own home and would have been early but there was this important letter he had to write. He had been putting it off for some time. The time got away from him. Excuses, excuses.
