VOLUME 72, NUMBER 15 • JANUARY 12, 2013

COLUMN ONE

2013? Are You Kidding Me?

Yes, 2013 is here and it's going to be a great year at Kare Youth League. Here is a general overview of the year:

January – Basketball begins for kindergarten & 1st grade girls as well as pre-k and kindergarten boys.

February – Winter Camps for many teams at Mount Kare, RHP Information Night & Pearl Prep campus tours.

March – Basketball championships and baseball/softball begins, the I Kare for Youth Breakfast, & RHP students present a special Easter performance.

April – Easter Vacation takes place from Thursday, March 28 through Tuesday, April 2. Circus ticket selling begins promoting a new show that we have never had before.

May – Baseball/Softball comes to a close, the Circus on May 31 and June 1, and soccer begins in June.

June – Soccer continues and the summer camping season begins at Mount Kare.

July – Soccer and a week-long track meet conclude activities for the summer. KYL & RHP middle school boys travel around the USA and RHP high school students travel to Europe.

August – The summer vacation break begins Friday, July 26 and concludes on Monday, August 19 when regular activities begin again with football & volleyball.

September – Football & volleyball dominate the scene while the youngest Kare members play soccer (boys pre-k and kindergarten) and tap/ballet (girls kindergarten & 1st grade).

October – League play begins for RHP high school students as the girls try to make it to the playoffs in volleyball and the boys defend their 2012 CIF Championship in football.

November – The 3K/5K/10K at Santa Fe returns & football & volleyball come to a close on championship weekend.

December – Basketball begins again; Santa comes back for breakfast, and we celebrate another wonderful new year.

Excuses, Excuses... (from the Paul Harvey Radio Program): Part 2

Joyce Black would probably not have been early. She would have been on time, though. It was just so cold out that evening, she wanted to stay in the house until the last possible minute and she was late. Excuses, excuses.

Harvey Ahl would have been on time, but his wife was out of town. That left him in charge of their two young sons. A friend had invited Harvey and the two boys out to dinner. A pleasant conversation carried them away, and Harvey was late.

Lucille Jones and Dorothy Wood were high school girls, lived next door to each other. Lucille was listening to a half-hour radio program that began at 7:00. She just had to hear how it ended. Dorothy was waiting for her. Excuses, excuses.

Pastor Klempel and his wife were always on time for choir practice. Not the evening of March 1, however. Pastor Klempel's wristwatch, the accuracy of which he was always so proud, that night, well, it was five minutes slow. The remaining choir members had equally valid excuses for their tardiness. Excuses, excuses; eighteen in all.

Never before nor since had each and every choir member of the West Side Baptist Church been late for choir practice on the same evening. That was Wednesday, March 1, 1950 and choir practice was scheduled for 7:30 p.m. like usual. But unlike any other time, no one showed up at 7:30. And now, THE REST OF THE STORY.

7:30 p.m. was the time when a natural-gas leak, surfacing in the basement of the West Side Baptist Church was ignited by the furnace. The church blew up and was demolished. The old furnace of the West Side Baptist Church that was directly below the choir loft exploded, the empty choir loft going up with it. And now you know, THE REST OF THE STORY.
