

INTERLEAGUER

VOLUME 72, NUMBER 23 • MARCH 18, 2013

COLUMN ONE

Baseball/Softball Season will begin officially this Saturday for all teams. Some game times may be different from normal because of the I Kare for Youth Breakfast.

Triple Word Score

Have you ever played Scrabble® before? If you have, you know the emotion stirred up by landing on a “Triple Word Score” and the even greater achievement of getting an “x” on “Triple Letter Score”. That particular feeling of joy is hard to find, but it will be available this Saturday, March 23 for anyone who wants it. The reason? Why, the I Kare for Youth Breakfast, of course. The breakfast is a great way to find out more about Kare, and the staff would be honored and encouraged for you to be part of it.

The morning includes a light breakfast, performances by Kare members, a video presentation, inspiring stories, and much more. This is a warm, friendly event especially planned for adults. Dress is nice casual.

Avoid errant foul balls by parking in the back parking lot.

The Good-For-Nothing

From the Paul Harvey Radio Program

When you're a little boy and Dad calls you “good-for-nothing,” it's just got to hurt! That's just what Guiseppe's Papa called him...good-for-nothing. Little Guiseppe good-for-nothing...and he wasn't joking.

Papa came from a family of fishermen. For three hundred years the men in his family had been fishermen in Sicily and Papa himself was a fisherman.

When he first came to America, he worked on the railroad until he'd saved enough money to send for his wife. Then he headed straight for San Francisco, to Fisherman's Wharf...to become a fisherman again...to perpetuate the family tradition. Eventually, Papa and Mama had nine children. And you can imagine that all of the boys got their sea legs early...began helping Papa out on his fishing boat from the time they learned to walk. All of them, that is, except Guiseppe. Guiseppe didn't want to.

“What do you mean, you don't want to!” demanded Papa. Guiseppe explained that the rocking of the small boat and the smell of the fish made him ill. It wasn't that he didn't want to help out; fish just didn't agree with him, that's all.

That wasn't good enough for Papa. As far as Papa was concerned, Guiseppe was good for nothing. The boy had come from a long line of fishermen and there was no reason in the world for the profession to disagree with him. Guiseppe was never too sick to go out and play with his friends. Why, then, did it make him sick to help his Papa? Not why, but what happened next is The Rest of the Story.

Disturbed by his father's criticism, young Guiseppe tried very hard to adapt to the family business. The rocking of the boat and the smell of the fish still bothered him, so he turned to other tasks, such as sealing the boat and repairing the nets. But as hard as he'd try to remain unaffected, the fish smell was still a problem and made his already sensitive stomach even queasier. Guiseppe quit.
