Facing the Falcons

The Tar Heels ran one of the most balanced attacks of the year against the Falcons. Five different runners put point on the board last Saturday, showing the diversity and depth of this young Tar Heel squad. Andrew Armas scored on a 30 yard run and received a pass on the extra point attempt. Decker DeGraaf stormed through the line picking up 17 yards as he crossed into the endzone. Isaiah Gallardo picked up 13 yards, setting up Mauricio Delgado who added 6 points to the board on a sweet 10 yard sweep around the end. Marc Bowers blazed a 17 yard trail through enemy lines and across the goal line. Jake Godinez debuted his running game with a powerful sweep into the endzone on an extra point attempt.

Defensively the Tar Heels were equally as diverse with 7 boys picking up 3 tackles or more. Sebastian Alvarado led the team with 5 tackles on the day followed by Maddox Lozano and Elijah Perez each with 4. Andrew Armas, Decker DeGraaf, Antonio Astorga, Isaiah Gallardo, Abram Lugo, Max Painter, Marc Bowers, Thomas Valenzuela, Triston Arola and Josh Watkins combined for over 20 tackles between them. Great game boys!
