COLUMN ONE

Who Puts the “Kare” into Kare Youth League?

Well, how long do you have? Actually, the “Kare” in Kare Youth League is there for many reasons. First, there is the staff of Kare Youth League, a dedicated group of mainly volunteers who give their afternoons and Saturdays so that children across So Cal can experience the same great activities and lessons in life that they received when they were a kid. Second, the children of Kare Youth League who give Kare its energy and excitement in a way only a child can. Third, the parents of those children who put aside personal interests and make sacrifices so their children can make it to club meetings, practices, and games, to be a part of this year around program.

Finally, the last group that puts the “Kare” into Kare Youth League is the people in the background that give a little extra each month to keep Kare going financially. This group includes Kare alumni, Kare present members, and Kare staff. All these groups need to be a part financially to make Kare work. Please join us in the Stivers Center in Arcadia at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 22nd for the I Kare for Youth Breakfast. Help be a part of putting the “Kare” into Kare Youth League.

Foul Ball!

Foul balls can be very dangerous around baseball fields. Make sure that when a game is going on you are paying attention to all the action. Also, keep in mind that Kare Youth League is not responsible for a ball hitting a car. If you park by the baseball field, it may get hit by a ball.

The Old Man and the Gulls From Paul Harvey: Part 2

The B-17 stayed afloat just long enough for all aboard to get out. Then, slowly, the tail of the Flying Fortress swung up and went down, leaving eight men and three rafts... and the horizon. For nearly a month Captain Eddie and his companions would fight the water, and the weather, and the scorching sun. They spent many sleepless nights recoiling as giant sharks rammed their rafts. The largest raft was nine by five. The biggest shark...ten feet long. But of all their enemies at sea, one proved most formidable: starvation. Eight days out, their rations were long gone or destroyed by the salt water. It would take a miracle to sustain them. And a miracle occurred.

In Captain Eddie’s own words, “The Captain read the service that afternoon, and we finished with a prayer for deliverance and a hymn of praise. There was some talk, but it tapered off in the oppressive heat. With my hat pulled down over my eyes to keep out some of the glare, I dozed off. Then, something landed on my head. I knew that it was a sea gull. I don’t know how I knew, I just knew. Everyone else knew too. No one said a word, but peering out from under my hat brim without moving my head, I could see the expression on their faces. They were staring at the gull. The gull meant food...if I could catch it.”

Well, Captain Eddie caught the gull. Its flesh was eaten. Its intestines were used for bait to catch fish. The survivors were sustained and their hopes renewed because a lone sea gull, uncharacteristically hundreds of miles from land, offered itself as a sacrifice. You know that Captain Eddie made it. And now you also know that he never forgot. Because every Friday evening, about sunset...on a spot along the eastern Florida seacoast...you could see an old man walking with a pail of shrimp...feeding the gulls. Now you know...the rest of the story.

Kare Youth League Handbook

When space provides, we plan on using this section to refresh everyone on items in the Kare Youth League Family Handbook. Below is "Member Discipline: Part One".

Member Discipline

1. Kare Youth League takes member conduct very seriously. The reason for all discipline on the team is to help the member learn to control himself or herself and act appropriately with respect to God, others, personal property and themselves. It also is to ensure a safe, spiritual and wholesome environment for all members.

2. Because the motive behind all disciplinary decisions and methods is correction and not retribution, the organization maintains a general policy of not reporting to victims or their families the specific disciplinary action used to correct the offender(s).
