COLUMN ONE

“You give us 22 Minutes and We’ll Give you...

...the world.” That’s a famous news lead-in of a local radio station, KFVB. Well, they might try to give you the world, but this Saturday, in about 60 minutes, we hope to “change” the world. That’s because this Saturday at 9:00 a.m. in Stivers Center the focus will be the children of Kare Youth League, and children are the best hope for “changing the world”. Earvin “Magic” Johnson recently said, “All kids need is a little help, a little hope, and somebody who believes in them.” That’s exactly what we try to give them at Kare Youth League. Come this Saturday and show your support for this organization, and show support for the staff that makes it possible.

Private School Education, Public School Type Athletics, One Close-Knit Family...RHP

It’s time for parents of middle school boys and girls to start thinking about school for next year. Let us suggest that you check out Rio Hondo Prep, Kare Youth League’s fully accredited middle & high school, located at Kare Youth League in Arcadia. The RHP office is open during school hours and can give you the information you are looking for. If you think that a private school education is financially out of your reach, give the staff at Rio Hondo Prep a chance to work it out. A positive recommendation from your child’s leader is the first step.

The Mouse That Roared From Paul Harvey: Part 1

Steve Morris was not a typical child. But when you’re nine years old, the desire to be typical is very strong. Steve was born in Saginaw, Michigan. When he was very young, his folks moved to Detroit, to a little apartment on Hastings Street. Of all the people and things Steve has since forgotten and remembered from those early years, one woman stands out in his mind. One woman encouraged him and gave him the courage to be extraordinary...Steve’s elementary-school teacher, Mrs. Beneduci.

Of course, Mrs. Beneduci was a wise woman. She realized that mere words, to a nine-year-old, might not carry much weight. With the unwitting aid of a little gray mouse she seized instead upon a particular opportunity, and from that day on Steve knew his greatest pride, the calling of a life. It happened in a tiny grade-school classroom in Detroit, which is the rest of the story.

Mrs. Beneduci called her class to order. “Come now! Jesse! Annette! Settle down, people...we’re going to open with history today...” The little ones squirmed in their seats, suppressing the nervous giggles of infant inmates wishing to be sprung. “I know you’d rather be outside playing,” said Mrs. Beneduci. “It’s a lovely day. But if you learn nothing in life, all you’ll ever know how to do is play!” The teacher gave a sympathetic half-smile. Young Steve Morris was quiet.

“Amy,” asked Mrs. Beneduci, “who was Abraham Lincoln?” Amy stared at her desk. “Uh...he, uh, had a beard.” The class collapsed with laughter. “Steve Morris?” said the teacher. “Same question.” “He was the sixteenth President of the United States,” came the answer...confident, without hesitation. The class was silent once more.

Steve’s problem was not the answers. He had them all. In fact, little Steve Morris also had a rather remarkable gift. (To be continued...)

Kare Youth League Handbook

When space provides, we plan on using this section to refresh everyone on items in the Kare Youth League Family Handbook. Below is "Member Discipline: Part Two".

Member Discipline

4. Parents' questions or concerns regarding specific incidents should first be addressed to the leader or staff in charge of the activity. If the question or concern remains unanswered, it should be taken to the division commissioner and then the site director.

6. The safety and well-being of the entire team must take precedent over any one member's desire to participate in the program. Therefore members that require consistent special attention even for legitimate or understandable reasons may be required to leave the program.
