

The Tar Heel Times

The Official Newsletter of the Kare Youth League Tar Heel B's

September 19, 2014

NOAH SAYS "NO!"

The Tar Heels battled the Falcons and the sun in last Saturday's heated game. The Falcons took quick control of the game, scoring on the opening kickoff. But the Heels battled back, marching down the field and scoring in just 5 plays. Nathan Ulloa picked up 2 yards followed by Matthew Wall with 3. Jordan Moore pierced through the Falcon defense for another 4 yards and Noah Penunuri blasted a huge hole through the line picking up the first down behind the blocking brigade of Timothy Coble, Erik Hernandez and Samuel Rondero. Andrew Benavidez turned up the heat, blazing down the sideline on a 5 yard quarterback keeper to put the Heels on the board. Penunuri stormed around the end on the extra point giving the Heels the lead! The Falcons battled right back, marching down the field quickly. Jordan Moore and Nathan Ulloa led the Heels with 5 tackles a piece. Legend Lyons, Dylan Rabins, Rylan King, and Andrew Benavidez made some key tackles, but the Falcons eventually punched through the Tar Heel defense and scored. With just a 2 minutes in the half, the Heels looked to Lyons who raced 30 yards into the endzone for another six points. Erik Hernandez set to kickoff and blasted it 25 yards downfield. The Falcons tried once more to march down the field, but their attack was thwarted by the Heels tenacious defense lead by Simon Rueff, Nathan Ulloa, Gunner Killiam and Noah Penunuri.

Lyons opened up the second half with a sweet 12 yard return. Jordan Moore picked up 5 yards on first down, followed by Lyons with another huge 35 yard touchdown run. The Heels continued to struggle on their extra point conversions unlike the Falcons who quickly answered with a touchdown and extra point of their own. The score was now tied 19-19 with the Heels in control of the ball. Matthew Wall gained 4 yards and Rueff picked up the first down on a 7 yard carry. Noah Penunuri's number was called and he would not disappoint! Noah found daylight through the fierce Falcon defense and scored giving the Heels the lead with a score of 25-19. The Tar Heels could taste victory, but with just moments left the Falcons hurled a 15 yarder into the endzone through the hands of their wide open receiver. Too close for comfort! The Falcons had just one more chance to score with 5 seconds remaining. They swept around their left end and snuck around the Tar Heel's corner. But Noah Penunuri earned his position at linebacker, crushing the Falcon out of bounds on the 2 yard line for a game saving tackle! Great game boys! The Tar Heels will face Kentucky this Saturday at 10:15 in Covina. See you there at 10:00!!!

TAR HEEL B 2014 FOOTBALL GAME SCHEDULE

9/20/14	Tar Heels vs. Kentucky	C-1	10:15
9/27/14	Tar Heels vs. Georgia	A-1b	6:30
10/4/14	Tar Heels Bye
10/11/14	Tar Heels vs. Falcon	U-1	9:45
10/18/14	Tar Heels vs. Kentucky	C-1	9:45
10/25/14	Santa Fe Ground Breaking @ Santa Fe & Future Bowl @ 6:30 in Arcadia (select players)
10/28/14	Tar Heels vs. FSU (Tuesday)	C-1	4:30
11/1/14	Tar Heels vs. Georgia	C-1	9:45
11/8/14	Tar Heels Bye
11/15/14	Playoffs
11/22/14	Championship		