COLUMN ONE

Make sure to take advantage of tours going on at Rio Hondo Prep this month.

“An Amazing Opportunity”

A Rio Hondo Prep alumnus came by to give thanks and let our Kare staff know, in his words, what “an amazing opportunity” it was to attend Rio Hondo Prep in jr. high and high school. The small class sizes, the consistent, caring staff, the wonderful times playing sports together, the lifetime friendships formed, and the life-changing choices made add up to an incredible experience. If you want more information or a personal tour of the campus, please give one of our admission directors a call Kristy Horton (girls) at 626-430-8636 or Mark Carson (boys) at 626-475-7092.

Fight One More Round

From God’s Little Devotional Book

Prizefighter James J. Corbett made many memorable statements during his colorful career, but perhaps his most famous was when he was asked, “What is the most important thing for a man to do to become a champion?” Corbett replied, “Fight one more round.”

Nearly all successful people have that perspective. Thomas Gray wrote seventy-five drafts of “Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard” before he was satisfied with his poetic masterpiece. S.N. Behrman, an American playwright, wrote plays for eleven years before he sold one. Somerset Maugham earned only $500 in his first ten years as a writer. While working full-time in a factory, Enrico Caruso studied voice for a dozen years before he became a successful performer. George Gershwin composed almost one hundred melodies before he sold his first one for $5.00. During his first five years as a writer, Zane Grey couldn’t sell a single story. And of course, from the movie, “National Treasure”, we know that it took Thomas Edison over 2,000 tries before inventing the light bulb (actually it was more than 10,000 but who’s counting).

Don’t be discouraged if your dream doesn’t come true immediately. Continue to pursue your craft or talent. Study and learn. Grow by experience. Keep working. The victory goes to those who are willing to “fight one more round!”
