COLUMN ONE

Breakfast with Santa on December 13th

Santa is coming to Kare Youth League in Arcadia on Saturday, December 13 from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. for the annual “Breakfast with Santa” festivities. First up, a first class pancake breakfast with all the trimmings (you know Santa loves a good breakfast). After that, a stroll through “Santa Land” is in order. Fun games and crafts will be going on all morning. To top it off, Santa will be there and ready to pose for a picture (bring your own camera). What a morning it will be, and all for only $7.00 per breakfast! Make sure to keep the morning of Saturday, December 13 open on your calendar and we will see you there!

Two Birds with One Stone

Sometimes it is interesting to research where idioms come from like “killing two birds with one stone”. Normally there are multiple theories. In this case, the most likely appears to be an ancient Chinese saying, “yi shi er niao” which literally translates, “one stone two birds.” There is also a story from Greek mythology about a man who was trying to kill two birds with one stone to save his life and the life of his son. Either way, killing two birds with one stone seems to be an efficient way to take care of two problems at once. At Kare, we have a suggestion for Christmas. That’s right; kill two birds with one stone by giving winter camp for Christmas. Nothing is more fun than spending some time at Mount Kare in Wrightwood with your teammates. This year, instead of giving a gift that beeps today and dies tomorrow, give an experience with memories for a lifetime. Check on the back of this Interleaguer for dates.

Wearing something like this to support your team is just embarrassing. Get your official team gear (sweatshirts, hats, and more) to support your Kare team at any Kare office. Please order ahead of time to ensure delivery before Christmas.

Can You See It?

*From Growing Together in Gratitude
by Barbara Rainey*

We all have bad days; sometimes we have several in a row. Often our bad days are simply full of nuisances like a driver in front of us who is going so slowly we’re late for an appointment, or the grocery store running out of the one item we need for dinner. The vacuum breaks, our favorite tee shirt gets lost, our cell phone keeps dropping calls, a neighbor complains about where we put our trash can. It’s pouring rain – again – and the kids are stuck in the house all day. Inconveniences and inconsiderate people can make for bad days.

But think for a moment. When you lose a valued possession, might God be teaching you contentment? When someone in your life is being difficult, could God be giving you an opportunity to pray and see what He will do? Proverbs 16:9 says, “The mind of man plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps.” Are you willing to look for the good that God intends in something that may seem bad?

Matthew Henry was a Puritan preacher in the late 1600’s. He once wrote in his diary about something bad that happened to him. One day, while walking home in London, he was robbed by a couple of men who jumped him from the shadows of an alley. Being robbed is hardly an everyday nuisance; it’s much more unsettling, more of a personal violation that can leave one feeling vulnerable and frightened. Reverend Henry probably felt those things, but what he wrote that night is very instructive: “Let me be thankful, first, because I was never robbed before; second, because although they took my purse, they did not take my life; third, because although they took my all, it was not much; and fourth, because it was I who was robbed and not I who robbed.” What a great perspective on a difficult situation.

Matthew Henry chose to look for the good that was hidden in the bad. The positive in every situation in life is there; we just have to choose to look for it.
