COLUMN ONE

It's Not Too Late

It is not too late to sign up for "US Baseball Academy", the nation's largest training program. For the second straight year they are bringing their classes to Kare Youth League. This year the camp will be held on the campus of Pearl Prep at 1307 E. Longden Ave. in Arcadia and begins on Saturday, January 3. The camp will include four 90 minute sessions each week for six weeks and is very affordable. The program includes instruction in hitting, pitching, fielding, base running, and catching. If you are interested, please visit the website at usbasketballacademy.com or call 866-622-4487. Advanced registration is required, so get signed up today.

Solve the Panic of Last Minute Shopping

Who likes crowds and parking nightmares? I sure don't. This year get your children something they really want. Sportline has balls for all seasons. Sure, basketball is beginning and Sportline has the basketball size you're looking for, but baseball and softball are also right around the corner, and a new glove or bat could also come in handy.

Stay warm this winter with a Kare Youth League sweatshirt. Sweatshirts for the Georgia Bulldogs, Kentucky Wildcats, FSU Seminoles, UNC Tarheels, and Falcons are all available in each office. So, take care of your shopping needs at Kare.

Don't forget, the Mount Kare winter camping season begins in February. The snow is just one more Christmas present idea for your child.

Something out of Nothing: Part 2 From Guidepost Magazine

But all our hard work didn't seem to be enough. I still spent too many hours looking out the store window for customers who never showed up. By the time the summer of 1936 came around, our business hadn't grown much at all, and the five-year trial would be up in December. What would we do then? Along with my nine-year-old son, my wife and one-month-old daughter, what hardship was I putting them in store for?

One hot Sunday in July, though, a great change swept us up. It started quietly, in the deadening heat of an early afternoon, when my wife, fresh from a nap, said to me, "Too hot to sleep?" "No, it isn't the heat. It's all the cars going by Route 16A. The jalopies just about shake the house to pieces." Then the idea came. My wife said, "I think I finally see how we can get all those travelers to come to our store. What is it that those travelers really want after driving across that hot prairie? They're thirsty. They want water. Ice cold water. Now we've got plenty of ice and water. Why don't we put up signs on the highway telling people to come here for free ice water?"

Well, I was willing to give it a try. During the next few days a high school boy and I put together some signs. Each sign had one word on it and we spaced the boards out so the people could read them as they drove by. The next weekend the boy and I went out to the highway to put up more signs for free ice water. By the time I got back to the store, people had already begun showing up. My wife was running all around to keep up. "Five glasses of ice water, please," a father called out. "Hey this free ice water is a great idea," said a salesman. "How about selling me an ice cream cone?" By the end of that summer we had to hire eight girls to help us. Nowadays, Wall Drug in South Dakota draws up to 20,000 people a day in the summer. I learned that no place on God's earth is Godforsaken. No matter where you live, you can succeed, because wherever you are, you can reach out to people with something they need.
