Breakfast with Santa

Who Knew Santa was a Jedi?

I don't think Santa is trading in the sleigh and reindeer for the Millennium Falcon any time soon, but it does appear that Santa has an interest in everything Star Wars, because this year at Breakfast with Santa there is an amazing Star Wars basket drawing that you won't want to miss (the basket is a $400 value and tickets for the drawing are $5.00 for one or $10 for 3). On Saturday, December 12 from 8:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m. (food service ends at 10:45 a.m.) at Kare Youth League in Arcadia, the Stivers Center will be fully decorated and loaded with food and activities for Breakfast with Santa. The full pancake breakfast cost $7.00 and includes lots of activities in Santa's Playland. Of course, Santa will be there too (he never wants to miss a good meal), you just need to bring your own camera and picture time will be available.

Basketball Courts at Kare Youth League

Courts in Arcadia (5150 Farna, Arcadia) – A-1 and A-2 are the courts out by the water tank. A-3 is by concession and A-4 is the green and terra cotta court next to Hampton Hall and Stivers Center. S-1 (as you enter the main door) and S-2 (by the stage) are the courts inside Stivers Center.

Courts in Covina (735 Glendora Ave, Covina) – C-1 and C-2 are the courts by the office. C-3 and C-4 are the 10 foot baskets on the Grand Ave. side of the park, while C-5 and C-6 are the 8½ foot baskets that are also on the Grand Ave. side of the park.

The Gold and Ivory Tablecloth

From Readers Digest – December 1954

By Rev. Howard C. Schade

At Christmastime, men and women everywhere gather in their churches to wonder anew at the greatest miracle the world has ever known. But the story I like best to recall was not a miracle...not exactly.

It happened to a pastor who was very young. His church was very old. Once, long ago, it had flourished. Famous men had preached from its pulpit and prayed before its altar. Rich and poor alike had worshiped there and built it beautifully. Now the good days had passed from the section of town where it stood. But the pastor and his young wife believed in their run-down church. They felt that with paint, hammer, and faith, they could get it in shape. Together they went to work.

But late in December, a severe storm whipped through the river valley, and the worst blow fell on the little church – a huge chunk of rain-soaked plaster fell out of the inside wall just behind the altar. Sorrowfully the pastor and his wife swept away the mess, but they couldn't hide the ragged hole. The pastor looked at it and had to remind himself quickly, “Thy will be done!” But his wife wept, “Christmas is only two days away!”

That afternoon the dispirited couple attended an auction held for the benefit of a youth group. The auctioneer opened a box and shook out of its folds a handsome gold-and-ivory lace tablecloth. It was a magnificent item, nearly 15 feet long. But who, today, had any use for such a thing? There were a few halfhearted bids. Then the pastor was seized with what he thought was a great idea. He bid it in for six dollars and fifty cents.

He carried the cloth back to the church and tacked it up on the wall behind the altar. It completely hid the hole! And the extraordinary beauty of its shimmering handwork cast a fine, holiday glow over the chancel. It was a great triumph. Happily he went back to preparing his Christmas sermon. (To be continued...)
