COLUMN ONE

Membership Fee Change for Baseball/Softball

The Membership Fee for baseball/softball will be changing for some of our members. Those families paying for only one child in the program will have their fee move from $95 to $100. Those with multiple children will remain unchanged at $190 or $250. Those on financial assistance will also see a small increase depending on their classification.

The Rose Bowl Says, “Not so Fast”

Last week, we informed you that the SoccerFest would be held on Saturday, May 21 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Well, the Rose Bowl staff have changed their mind. They are now saying the date will be Saturday, June 11. If you ask how sure we are of that, we will refer you to Bill Murray in Groundhog Day, “Chance of departure today... eighty percent... seventy-five/eighty.”

Anyway, it may seem early, and tickets will not be available to sell until after Easter, but there is still something you can do right now to help the event. Most big events have business sponsors and the SoccerFest is no exception. Sponsorships ranging from $250 to $10,000 are available. A popular choice for Kare members is the $1,000 team sponsorship. Benefits include a business card size color ad in the event program, name listed on the Rose Bowl JumboTron at regular intervals, and your name and logo on a special team t-shirt that every member of the sponsored team will be able to wear. You will also receive credit for your tickets as if you had sold all $1,000. That means a lot of prizes coming your way as well.

Pearl Prep is Looking for You

Pearl Prep, Kare Youth League’s fully accredited elementary school located in Arcadia, is looking for boys and girls from K-5 that want to have the Kare Youth League experience to school each day. Kare members receive a 50% discount on the applications (a $25 value). Call (626) 442-7737 to ask questions and arrange a school tour. You won’t regret it.

A Great Basketball Story from “The Book of Man” by William J. Bennett – Part Three

After steamrolling through the sectional and regional rounds of the tournament, Milan entered the semifinals in Indianapolis against the Montezuma High School Aztecs, an underdog in their own right, as Montezuma had half the enrollment of Milan’s 161. Nonetheless, Milan prevailed in a 44-34 triumph, then scurried back to their hotel to catch a nap before a night game against Crispus Attucks High School, whose star player, Oscar Robertson, went on to lead his team to two consecutive state championships in 1955 and 1956, and would later be voted one of the NBA’s fifty greatest players in 1996.

Bobby Plump, Milan’s star player, had worn himself out against Montezuma that afternoon and was struggling to get through the game versus Crispus Attucks. At halftime, Plump was wrapped up in a blanket, shivering in a cold sweat from exhaustion. His teammates told him they would hold down their slim 7 point lead, but Plump insisted on going back out and was already shooting warm-up jumpers as Coach Wood emerged out of the locker room for the second half. Plump’s iron will was partly forged by a hardscrabble childhood. He was the youngest of six children, whose mother had died when Bobby was five, and was raised by his father and oldest sister. The family never had any running water, and electricity came only when Bobby was twelve. But the Plumps were close-knit, and any material deficiencies were made up for by the close comforts of family and Bobby’s love for the game of basketball. No doubt inspired that day by Plump’s heroics, Milan topped Crispus Attucks 65-52, advancing to play Terre Haute Gerstmeyer Tech.

In the state semifinal, Milan bested Tech by the score of 60-48, and earned the right to play the powerful Muncie Central for the championship. Muncie’s gym alone could fit seven times the entire population of Milan. (finished next week...)
