VOLUME 75, NUMBER 20 • JANUARY 25, 2016

COLUMN ONE

RHP Open Campus This Saturday

This Saturday, January 30 Rio Hondo Prep middle school and high school will be opening its doors to the public for tours of the campus from 12-7 in the afternoon and evening. Kare Youth League members who are presently in 5th through 7th grades are especially invited to take part. Teachers and administrators will be available to answer all of your questions so you can find out just how great being a “Kare” can be.

Rio Hondo Prep offers a small school atmosphere, Christian environment, WASC accredited education, competitive athletics, community service, and the support of the entire Kare Youth League family of parents and coaches.

Membership Fee Change for Baseball/Softball

The Membership Fee for baseball/softball will be changing for some of our members. Those families paying for only one child in the program will have their fee move from $95 to $100. Those with multiple children will remain unchanged at $190 or $250. Those on financial assistance will also see a small increase depending on their classification.

If Two Wrongs Don't Make A Right...

...then what do two rights make? The answer is an airplane, of course. Two rights can also make a big difference to Kare Youth League. Baseball and softball season will soon be here and there are two things you can do to help Kare be even better. The first thing is to tell friends and family with children about Kare and invite them to be a part. A lot of our best members are told about Kare by someone they know. The other thing you can do is to start working with your child on a few skills at home so they are better prepared for the season. Start off by playing catch. It's a simple activity that can accomplish a lot.

Winter Camps Coming in February

Pac Five – February 12-15 ($131 includes tubing on Table Top)

AAA & Pac 12 – February 19-21 ($87)

Karenas – February 27-28 ($58)

A & AA – March 5-6 ($75 includes tubing on Table Top)

Special Note: For a better experience, have your child bring a pair of waterproof pants and a jacket. If you do not have these it might be a good idea to pack one extra pair of pants and an extra sweatshirt. Advise your child to always keep one pair of pants and one sweatshirt dry (not used) when involved in snow play.

A Great Basketball Story from “The Book of Man” by William J. Bennett – Conclusion

It has been estimated that 90% of all Indiana families either watched or listened to the championship game that day – a defensive contest that featured a poor shooting performance from Bobby Plump. Sensing that his traditional strategies would not work against the mighty Muncie front line, Coach Wood resorted to dilatory tactics – holding the ball stationary for four minutes of the fourth quarter in order to keep the game close. With three seconds left on the clock and the score tied 30-30, Plump played the hero once again, draining a jump shot as time expired to give the Indians the tile. The Indiana High School Athletic Association awarded Plump the Trester Award for the player exhibiting outstanding mental attitude, sportsmanship, and character.

While plenty of underdog teams have captured titles throughout the history of sports, none have captured the popular imagination quite like the 1954 Milan Indians. Forty thousand people descended on Milan (population: 1,150) the next day as the team returned home from Indianapolis. The 1986 movie Hoosiers retold the story, although it did feature many variations of the true story to fit film conventions. For instance, the movie character Jimmy Chitwood, based on Bobby Plump, was eager to take – and make – the final shot. “I was a very shy kid,” Bobby Plump told the Washington Post in 1995. “I never would have said, ‘I’ll make it.’” Nonetheless, Hoosiers helped to ingrain the Milan Indians in sporting legend forever.

All the players on the 1954 championship team went on to have fruitful careers in public and private life, with many becoming successful teachers and coaches in their own right, like starting forward Ron Truitt and reserve Glen Butte. The determination, team play, and underdog mentality that propelled them to victory in 1954 proved to be invaluable throughout their lives.
