COLUMN ONE

The Hawks are ready for some volleyball! All three Hawk Pac Five teams are pictured here at their pre-season get together.

Important Things to Remember

The fall season has begun and that means that volleyball and football championships will be here before you know it. Here are a few important things to keep in mind:

- 1) Any player missing 3 or more games during the season is not eligible for an award and cannot participate in the post season.
- 2) To follow the standings go to KYL.org, look for the word “links” and then scroll down and click on “standings”.
- 3) If you take pictures at the game and post them on Facebook, we would appreciate it if you would #kareyouthleague with the post.

Better Late Than Never?

“Better late than never” is an old English proverb dating back to the 1200’s. Whoever came up with the term, I’m sure that it wasn’t the jousting coach for the Chichester Cougars. Coaches like their players to, not only show up on time, but arrive at the game, ready to play, early. This Saturday start getting ready for the game early enough so that you will not only “be on time” but “be there early”.

The Clock is Ticking

Only two weeks to go. Sell your 3-2-1 tickets and turn the money in before October 15. Tick...tick...tick...

Don’t Blame Circumstances: from God’s Little Devotional Book

Years ago, in Monterey, California, a crisis arose. Monterey had become a paradise for pelicans. After cleaning their fish, the local fishermen would throw the pelicans the entrails. The birds soon became fat and lazy.

Eventually, a new market was found that could use the entrails commercially. The pelicans no longer had a free meal. Yet, the pelicans made no effort to fish for themselves. They just waited, and waited, for the handouts that didn’t come. Many starved to death. They seemed to have forgotten how to fish for themselves.

The opposite approach was taken by an elderly woman waiting for a bus. She was crippled with rheumatism and loaded down with packages. As the bus door opened, a man offered her a helping hand. The woman smiled and shook her head. “I’d best manage alone,” she said. “If I get help today – I’ll want it tomorrow.”

George Bernard Shaw once noted, “People are always blaming their circumstances for what they are. I don’t believe in circumstances. The people who get on in this world are the people who get up and look for the circumstances they want, and if they can’t find them, make them.”
