COLUMN ONE

Mr. Green, with a Wrench, in the Study

A Rio Hondo Prep Homecoming is always just a little different and this Friday, November 4th will be no exception. Everyone will be following the “Clues” to find out who the Homecoming Court will be. The girls from Kare Youth League will be performing and the Rio Hondo Prep Homecoming Queen and her Court will be crowned. The football game will also be important for the Kares as they hope to earn a playoff spot with a victory over Firebaugh. Plan to come out and support the young men and women who help with your child’s team on this huge night.

Stephen Santizo and the rest of the Rio Hondo Prep football squad will be trying to top Firebaugh at Homecoming on Friday, November 4.

Say, “Cheeeeeeeese!”

The last two weeks for pictures have arrived. Saturday, November 5 the photographer will be in Covina.

Saturday, November 5 – C Division – UNC, B Division – FSU, A Division – UNC & Georgia, AAA Division – UNC & Georgia.

Saturday, November 12 – Pac Five Teams who haven’t had picture day yet.

Future Bowl Coming in November

The Future Bowl is coming on Thursday, November 10 in Arcadia. The evening will be full of football games, drill team performances, and a volleyball tournament. Look on the back page of the Interleaguer for schedule and information.

Historical Events That Took Place in November

November 1, 1776 – The Declaration of Independence was signed about four months previously (and perhaps did or didn’t have an Ottendorf cipher on the back) but on the west coast other things were going on. Mission San Juan Capistrano was founded. Good thing, too, because the swallows finally had somewhere to stay when they returned from their winter vacation in Argentina.

November 2, 1947 – Billionaire eccentric Howard Hughes flies the “Spruce Goose” in Long Beach for about a mile, no more than 70 feet off the ground. It was the only flight for the 200 ton plywood airplane that cost over 25 million dollars to construct. The world’s largest airplane ever built, it now resides in Oregon.

November 3, 1948 – The famous headline “Dewey Defeats Truman” appears on the front page of the Chicago Tribune. Harry Truman actually defeated Thomas Dewey for the presidency (but the Tribune did get their paper out first, so what’s one little mistake going to matter).

November 4, 1979 – About 500 Iranian militants stormed the US Embassy in Tehran, Iran and took 90 hostages, including 52 Americans. The crisis lasted almost 15 months and ended on January 20, 1981, just minutes after Ronald Reagan was sworn in as President. It also gave job security to ABC News anchorman, Ted Koppel, who kept America informed every night on Nightline.

November 5, 1494 – Writer and composer Hans Sachs was born in Nuremburg, Germany. He would later throw his support behind Martin Luther and his reformation of the church, penning his poem, “The Nightingale of Wittenburg” in Luther’s honor.

November 6, 1860 – Abraham Lincoln was elected President of the United States. Exactly one year later, Jefferson Davis was elected President of the Confederate States of America.
