INTERLEAGUER

VOLUME 76, NUMBER 11 • NOVEMBER 7, 2016

COLUMN ONE

The Future is Now

The Future Bowl, that is. This special event will be held on Thursday, November 10 in Arcadia. The evening will be full of football games, drill team performances, and a volleyball tournament. Look on the back page of the Interleaguer for schedule and information.

The Royal Friends and Karenas performing for the crowd at the Rio Hondo Prep Homecoming last Friday night.

“Put it on the Boooooaaaarrrrrd!”

Ken Harrelson, a popular baseball announcer for the White Sox, loves to say, “Put it on the board” when a Chicago player hits a home run. In Arcadia there is a picture board right next to concession and you can put a favorite picture “on the board” if you wish. If you have a picture of a Kare activity that you would like to share then “put it on the board”.

Rio Hondo Prep’s football squad qualified for the CIF playoffs and will face South El Monte on the road this Friday night.

Historical Figures Born in November

November 7, 1918 – William Franklin “Billy” Graham was born outside Charlotte, North Carolina. Some things you may not know about the famous Southern Baptist Minister; he was good friends with several Presidents including Lyndon Johnson, he bailed Martin Luther King, Jr. out of prison when he was arrested during a protest, and “Billy” will soon celebrate his 98th birthday.

November 8, 1656 – Edmund Halley was given birth in London, England. Halley sighted the now famous comet that bears his name in 1682, correctly predicting that it would appear again in 1758 after his death. Halley’s Comet’s next appearance will be in 2061, at least that’s what we predict.

November 9, 1731 – Baltimore, Maryland became home for the future surveyor of Washington D.C., Benjamin Banneker. He was largely self-taught and corresponded on topics of racial equality and slavery with Secretary of State Thomas Jefferson.

November 10, 1483 – The famous Catholic Church reformer Martin Luther was born in Eisleben, Saxony. Included in his thesis was that the Bible should be the sole authority of the Church. It is rumored that his parents posted the announcement on the front door.

November 11, 1885 – General George S. Patton was born in San Gabriel, California. In World War II, Patton led an Allied force that started in North Africa, invaded Italy, freed France, and concluded its march by entering Germany. Ironically, Patton was not killed on the battlefield but in a car accident toward the end of the war.

November 12, 1840 – The French sculptor Auguste Rodin was born in Paris, France. Rodin is probably best known for his statue “The Thinker”. The original version is actually located in Paris, but many casts have since been made that can be found in museums all over the world, including the National Gallery of Art at the Smithsonian in Washington D.C.
