INTERLEAGUER

VOLUME 76, NUMBER 29 • APRIL 10, 2017

COLUMN ONE

The time for selling 2017 SoccerFest tickets is not tomorrow or next week...it's now. Get started today!

Special Scheduling Note During Easter

Kare Youth League will not have any regular activities from Thursday, April 13 through Tuesday, April 18. Regular activities will begin again on Wednesday, April 19.

There will be a special Easter service presented by Rio Hondo Prep High School students in Arcadia on Easter morning. The morning will begin with a special performance by the high school at 9:00 a.m., followed by a continental breakfast, and then a shortened Kare Youth Church service. Everyone is invited. If you are not already attending a service that morning, please consider coming out to support some of the young men and women that help assist in the Kare Youth League program. You just might go home...inspired.

Things Get Better the Second Time Around

Panda Express joins Tommy's Burgers and Kona Ice as food that will be available at SoccerFest 2017 at the Rose Bowl on June 3. During the SoccerFest ticket selling campaign, you will see the dreaded word, "Quota" from time to time. The quota is an amount that you are responsible to sell for the campaign. The quota is required and you will have to either sell the tickets (which we prefer), or purchase them (which we know some do). If selling the tickets seems a little daunting, here are a couple of things to try. First, sell to relatives and friends (they are the easiest to sell to). Second, hit up that nosey neighbor of yours (if nothing else, maybe they'll leave you alone). Of course, if you have a friendly neighbor, then that will probably work better.

Easter Awakening A poem by Poppy

Early Easter morning,
All my children ran downstairs.
Looking for their baskets,
That were hid behind the chairs.
They would tiptoe to the chair,
Then slowly take a peek.
We knew that they had found one,
When we heard their voices shriek.
When it was all over,
And their baskets had been found,
They sorted all the candy,
As the family sat around.
My youngest, who was only three,
Came over where I sat.
She held her little arms out,
Then she hopped up on my lap.
"Daddy," she began to say,
"I love you with all my heart."
"I have so many goodies here,
I don't know where to start."
"There's chocolate bunnies, chocolate chicks."
"There's eggs and jelly beans,
And little candy eggs, a duck lays,
When she flaps her wings."
"Marshmallow peeps and colored eggs,
And chocolate that is white."
"I even have the hard boiled eggs,
We colored late last night."
"But, I have a question Dad."
"I heard it on TV."
"It wasn't in my basket,
I don't know where it could be."
"The man said, 'In our basket,
There should always be a section,
Where we should keep the memories,
Of Easter's Resurrection.'"
Then she held her basket up,
And said, "I've looked through these."
"What's the Resurrection, Daddy?"
"Would you tell me please?"

Let us remember what Easter is all about.
