INTERLEAGUER

VOLUME 76, NUMBER 30 • APRIL 24, 2017

COLUMN ONE

Everyone who has turned in at least $5.00 in SoccerFest ticket sales will get a voucher for an ice cream bar. Who wouldn't want that?

Ice Cream Is Coming

If you like ice cream (and who doesn't?) then Saturday, May 6 is an important date for you to remember. All members who have turned in at least $5 by Saturday, May 6 will receive a free ice cream. Jot down the date, Saturday, May 6, turn in your money to the office, and get ready to have an ice cream.

Prizes Galore

There are so many prizes that a member can earn by selling SoccerFest tickets. The two we want to focus on in this article are the In-n-Out gift card and the Dodger game. Everyone goes to In-n-Out sometime during the year and having a gift card with you makes it even more enjoyable. Plus, if the child sold at least some of the tickets themselves (see Why Kids Need to Experience the Value of Hard Work in the column to the right), the burger and fries will taste even better to them because they earned it.

The Dodger game on Monday, June 5 is a great parent-child outing if you sell $350 worth of tickets (maybe the Dodgers will actually start winning some games by then). The Dodgers will be playing the Washington Nationals that night. Who knows, maybe you'll be able to see Clayton Kershaw battling Bryce Harper in a MLB Network type battle.

Why Kids Need to Experience the Value of Hard Work by Dave Cruze

One of the most important points Dave and his daughter Rachel Cruze discuss in their #1 New York Times best-selling book, Smart Money Smart Kids, is the value of hard work. In this excerpt from the book, Dave and Rachel discuss the positive influence working has on kids.

DAVE: Our culture has made many wonderful advances to ensure the safety and well-being of children. But we may have taken this too far. Many parents today are so centered on what their children want that they have lost perspective on what their children really need. Teaching a child to work is not child abuse. We teach them to work not for our benefit, but because it gives them both dignity in a job well done today and the tools and character to win in the future as adults.

You should view teaching your children to work in the same way you view teaching them to bathe and brush their teeth—as a necessary skill for life. An adult who has no clue how to tackle a job and finish it with vigor is as debilitated as an adult with green teeth and body odor. If your child graduates from high school and his only skill set consists of playing video games, whining, copping an attitude of entitlement, and eating junk food, you have set him up to fail.

Another huge benefit of teaching a child the wonder of work is that she will tend to lose respect for people who refuse to work. Why is this good? It is good because you want your daughter to marry Mr. Right, not Mr. Lazy. We noticed quickly that our daughters (and our son) didn't pursue relationships with people who didn't know how to work. This is great news, because someday you may have grandkids, and you want both of their parents to be productive so your grandkids get to eat. (Part 2 next week)
