"As we have grown and prospered in material things, so also should we progress in moral and spiritual things. We are a God-fearing people who should set ourselves against evil and strive for righteousness in living, and observing the Golden Rule we should from our abundance help and serve those less fortunately placed. We should bow in gratitude to God for His many favors."

COLUMN ONE

Saturday, December 1st Santa will be visiting the Stivers Center at Kare Youth League in Arcadia from 8:00 to 11:00 in the morning.

What Does Santa and Food Have in Common?

Why, everything, of course. That's why Saturday, December 1st between 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. (food service ends at 10:45 a.m.) is the perfect time to see Santa in Stivers Center at Kare Youth League in Arcadia. For $7.00 you receive a full pancake breakfast, game tickets to use in Santa Land, a photo op with Santa himself (bring your own camera), and a jolly good time. Proceeds will go toward something great for the Kare Youth League program. In the past profits have gone to scoreboards in Upland and Irwindale, as well as lighting in Covina. Also, don't forget to go to "Team App" and show the coupon for two bonus game tickets. Ho, ho, ho...

An Important Date to Remember

November 26th is an important date to remember. November 26th is the day that all membership fees need to be paid in full to be eligible to participate in basketball. If you need to work something out please talk to a site director (Mr. Bolinger, Mr. Wideman, or Mr. Corral) or the registrar (Mrs. Drain) before November 26th so they can assist you. Thanks.

God's Little Devotional Book

When Jim was diagnosed with cancer, his company heartlessly dumped him. In battling the disease, he used up all of his insurance fund, and his life savings. A church deacon went to visit Jim and asked boldly, "Have you prepared for your life after death?"

Jim became irate, and he said, "All you Christians think about is what's going to happen after I die. If your God is so great, why doesn't He do something about the real problems of life?" He bitterly complained that he was leaving his wife penniless and his daughter without money for college. Then he ordered the man to leave his house.

The man thought about what Jim had said and soon returned. "I offended you and I'm sorry," he said. "I've been working on your problems. A realtor I know has agreed to sell your house and give your wife his commission. Some of us will make your house payments until the house is sold. The earnings from your house should pay for your daughter's college. Also, the owner of an apartment building up the street has offered to give your wife a unit, with free utilities, plus a monthly salary in exchange for managing the complex."

Jim cried like a baby. He could finally hear the Gospel message with an open heart.
