David vs. Goliath Part Two

There won't be any slings or stones at Kare Park on Friday night (because they are against the rules) when the 100 student body Rio Hondo Prep Kares take on Artesia High School and their 1500 in the second round of the CIF football playoffs. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and tickets are $5.00 for students and $10.00 for adults. Come and see if history can repeat itself.

The Frogs at Wingate Park

In the summer of 1984 Wingate Park was a mess. The ground was covered with so many gopher holes that you could barely take a step without finding one. There were areas of the park (where the baseball fields are now) that had grass and weeds growing five or six feet high. The only things that were left from baseball fields that had been there many years before were a few home plates. There were no basketball courts and the playground (if you could call it that) was in shambles.

That's when Kare Youth League arrived and began revitalizing the park. It started with a group of college guys mowing the fields with hand mowers to clear an area for soccer fields. Eventually, there was a trailer and some backstops and fencing. Later, a group of parents arranged to have cement poured for basketball courts, and all along the way, there were the frogs.

Tiny frogs, about the size of a finger nail, would jump all around when the mowers came through to cut the grass. Boys would catch them, even holding frog races. Some of the frogs turned into bigger frogs which are still in the park today. Although most go into a state of hibernation over the winter, you can bet that the frogs at Wingate Park will be croaking full blast in the early evening come baseball time.
