COLUMN ONE

This is a picture from Pac 12 winter camp from last weekend. Playing football in the meadow is a big highlight. It was cold and there was plenty of snow. The boys had a great time.

Carnival on March 2 at Kare Park

Pearl Prep, Kare Youth League's elementary school located in Arcadia, is sponsoring an "Opening Day Carnival" at Kare Park in Irwindale on Saturday, March 2 from 10-2. Children will be given complimentary booth tickets at their game and be able to play after. This is not a fundraising event, just a way to have some fun to kick off the season. By the way, if you are interested in our elementary school or just want information, there will be a Pearl booth at the event. Stop on by!

Put Your Past Behind You

By Tony Dungy

(Based on Philippians 3:13) Press on, move ahead. Forget what is behind – whether it's good or bad, whether anything made any sense at all, yesterday is done and gone. That was one of the things I always tried to impress upon my teams. No matter what happened on Sunday – even if it was a devastating, last-second loss – by Monday night they had to let it go. Focusing on last week's game would not help them prepare for the next one.

We can't replay what's past or change what occurred. We want to think we can, we wish we could, often out of a sense of guilt or loss for whatever happened. It probably explains why so many popular movies have dealt with the subject, like Back to the Future, Mr. Destiny, or Sliding Doors. As the apostle Paul recognized, we're just not going to change the past.

And that's why Paul makes the only rational decision he can make and offers the same to us, as well: he forgets the past and presses ahead. If there's anyone who could have clung to the past – the decisions he'd made, the people who'd wronged him – it would have been Paul.

After Paul's conversion on the road to Damascus, he became hunted and persecuted with the same zeal with which he hunted and persecuted Christ's followers. Now Paul followed Christ and served the believers called by Christ to touch the world. Time and again Paul was wrongfully imprisoned or beaten nearly to death for his new life, witness, and uncompromising testimony for Christ.

Where are you today in your journey with Christ? Are you stuck in the past, holding on to regrets, remorse, or feelings of guilt for things you should have done or people you should have spent more time with? Are you still holding on to grudges against someone else for something they did to you, which they have long ago forgotten? It's time to forget about it and move on so you can be all that the maker of the universe wants you to be.
