COLUMN ONE

This summer Kare is offering Family Camps in place of normal team camping. Take advantage of this possible once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

What and Where is Mount Kare?

“I have heard a lot about “Mount Kare” recently. What is that exactly?” Well, we’re glad you asked. Mount Kare is Kare Youth League’s fully accredited camping facility in Wrightwood, California. It is located just opposite of Mountain High skiing, and is usually used by Kare Youth League in the summer and winter for team camps, as well as rented out to groups from all over Southern California year around.

Mount Kare Family Camping

When life gives you lemons...you know what to do...make lemonade. That is our philosophy this summer at Kare Youth League. Covid-19 has put a damper on our winter and summer camping experience that we usually provide at Mount Kare in Wrightwood, so this year we are planning something different. This summer we are offering three opportunities to experience Mount Kare as a family in place of our traditional team camps. May 29-30, June 12-13, and June 18-20 parents will have the unique chance to connect with their children in a nature setting with great food and accommodations. It is the perfect combination.

In Case You Missed it

Just to repeat from last week, Pearl Prep, Kare Youth League’s fully accredited elementary school located in Arcadia, has started In-person instruction (all day every day) right now. Call (626) 442-7737 and spend the last two months of school actually in school.

The Old Man and the Gulls From Paul Harvey

About sunset it happened every Friday evening, on a lonely stretch along the eastern Florida seacoast. You could see an old man walking, white-haired, bushy eye-browed, slightly bent. One gnarled hand would be gripping the handle of a pail filled with shrimp. There, on a broken pier reddened by the setting sun, the weekly ritual would be re-enacted.

All at once, the silent twilight sky would become a mass of dancing dots...growing larger. In the distance, screeching calls would become louder. They were sea gulls, come from nowhere, on the same pilgrimage...to meet an old man.

For half an hour or so, the gentleman would stand on the pier, surrounded by fluttering white, until his pail of shrimp was empty. But the gulls would linger for a while. Perhaps one would perch comfortably on the old man’s hat.

Eventually, the old man’s days were past. If the gulls still return to that spot...perhaps on a Friday evening at sunset...it is not for food...but to pay homage to the secret they shared with a gentle stranger. And that secret is...the rest of the story.

In October of 1942 it was reported that Captain Eddie Rickenbacker was lost at sea. Captain Eddie’s mission had been to deliver a message of the utmost importance to General MacArthur. MacArthur was headquartered in New Guinea, and Rickenbacker was given a B-17 and a hand-picked crew to take him there. But there was an unexpected detour which would hurl Captain Eddie into the most harrowing adventure of his life.

Somewhere over the South Pacific the Flying Fortress became lost beyond the reach of radio. Fuel ran dangerously low, so the men ditched their plane in the ocean. (To be continued...)
