COLUMN ONE

Family Camp at Mount Kare on May 29-30 has filled up but there are still two more weekends available...at least for now.

Summer Vacation Period for Kare

As our spring sports settle down and summer sports begin it is important to note when our summer break will be at Kare Youth League. Summer sports will end by Thursday, July 15. There will be no Kare activities from Friday, July 16 to Sunday, August 15. Our fall activities will come back beginning the week of August 16. Those on the monthly payment plan will continue to pay each month. Every three months you pay covers one season and we will still be playing four separate seasons during the year.

The Immortal Chaplains

It was just after midnight on a cold and dark February 3 morning in 1943. Six US ships were passing through an area known as “torpedo alley” off the coast of Greenland. In the darkness below lurked a German submarine. None of the 902 men on board the US Army troopship, Dorchester, knew what was about to happen.

Suddenly a torpedo ripped into the midsection of the Dorchester causing panic and confusion as hundreds of men came up to the deck looking for lifeboats. In the middle of it all were four chaplains; a Jewish Rabbi-Alexander Goode, a Catholic Priest-Father John Washington, and two Protestant Ministers-Reverend Clark Poling and Reverend George Fox. The four went around securing lifejackets, ministering to the wounded, and calming loose nerves. When lifejackets ran out they forfeited their own.

18 minutes after the explosion, the ship sank into the dark Atlantic. The last sight many saw were the four chaplains, arm in arm on the hull of the ship, each praying for the men they had just helped save. In all, 230 survivors were scooped from the freezing waters. Unfortunately, 672 were not so lucky, including the four chaplains.

Most of us will never have to make the ultimate sacrifice to save the life of a friend or loved one. These four gave their lives for men they hardly knew, but we all can do our best every day to put the interests of others before our own. Think about the four chaplains this week as you drive to work or participate at practice.
