COLUMN ONE

Please let your child's coach know if you are certified to be an EMT or higher.

EMT or Higher Certification Needed

We want to increase the safety at our games this year and want to attempt to have an EMT or higher certified professional at all our Kare games. If you are willing to be the designated professional at your child's game please let us know. We won't ask you to take care of boo-boos but it would be nice to know, if something more serious occurred in the stands or on the field, that there would be immediate assistance available.

Speaking of Certified....

It's good to know that all our Kare Youth League coaches and staff have been trained and certified in basic first aid and CPR. Also, all our football coaches have been certified by USA Football. Let's keep it safe out there.

Boys and girls PK (turned 4 by August 1st) and Kindergarten will be starting soccer (boys) and dance (girls) in September. Come be part of the action and tell a friend.

Excuses, Excuses... (from the Paul Harvey Radio Program): Part 1

Mrs. Paul is the choir director for the West Side Baptist Church in Beatrice, Nebraska. Her daughter, Marilyn, is the church pianist. Neither has ever been late for choir practice; to the contrary, both are in the habit of arriving fifteen minutes early. It's Wednesday evening, March 1, 1950 at 7:00. Choir practice begins at 7:30. Mrs. Paul calls to her daughter upstairs; it's almost time. There is no answer but Mrs. Paul returns to her last-minute preparation and the minutes are ticking away. It is 7:15 p.m. when Mrs. Paul realizes that Marilyn is asleep. Mrs. Paul awakens her; they tidy up, and start out. This will be the first time either Mrs. Paul or her daughter has ever been late for choir practice. Their perfect attendance record is broken. Excuses, excuses.

But you know what? There are eighteen members in the West Side Baptist Church Choir, and each and every one that very same night is also late for practice. All eighteen have perfectly valid excuses; all are late. You've read the excuse Mrs. Paul and her daughter had but the others had excuses too. Ladona Vandegrift, a high school sophomore, was having trouble with her homework. Like Mrs. Paul and Marilyn, Miss Vandegrift knew practice began promptly and she always came early, but this evening she was detained by a particularly baffling geometry problem. Royena Estes and her sister Sadie were ready to leave their house on time but their car wouldn't start. So the two sisters called Miss Vandegrift and asked her to pick them up. Miss Vandegrift was working on her geometry, remember, and the Estes sisters had to wait.

Ordinarily, Mrs. Schuster was ten minutes early for choir practice. The night of March 1 she was detained at her mother's house. The two were preparing for a later missionary meeting. Herb Kipf was at his own home and would have been early but there was this important letter he had to write. He had been putting it off for some time. The time got away from him. Excuses, excuses.
